

USA Archery National Head Coach Kisik Lee will visit Northampton, MA, for a two-day training clinic on Friday and Saturday, May 4 & 5 and for private coaching sessions at Amherst Archery Academy on Sunday, May 6. Registration open: enroll today at www.amherstarchery.com or directly here.

Amherst Archery Academy is honored to, once again, host Coach Lee at Smith College for this two-day clinic. Registration is limited! We encourage you to register soon on the Amherst Archery website. You can even order food through the Amherst Archery website when you enroll and your meals will be brought to you during the clinic. You will receive a Welcome Packet upon registering with ample suggestions for lodging.

This unique opportunity to work directly with Coach Lee in studying the National Training System (NTS) is indispensable. JOAD and Adult Archery Achievement archers welcome; Instructors and Coaches welcome; General club membership welcome; competitive archer athletes welcome. Whether you are a Level I Instructor wanting more of the big picture of NTS, a Level II Instructor working towards your Level III, a Level III Coach wanting to best prepare for your Level IV, or a Level IV Coach simply wanting more direct exposure to Coach Lee, this experience is guaranteed to benefit you and the archers you work with.

Kisik Lee's outstanding success as the former Korean and Australian National Head Coach, and now as the USA Archery National Head Coach is certainly part of the draw for this event. Coach Lee also is the lead developer of the National Training System, the shooting form used by many US Olympic athletes and promulgated by USA Archery Coaches.

Please help us spread news of this opportunity through your club membership and enroll.
